

Behaviour Training

Suitable for Professionals in their 2nd, 3rd, or 4th year of teaching

Join Mark Goodwin for our FREE webinar sessions to learn ways to implement behaviour strategies in your classroom.

Specifically designed for teachers new to the profession, by the end of the sessions, you will:

- √ Know and understand your students and their influences and use this to motivate and engage them in learning

What experienced teachers have learned about behaviour; Behaviour mantras; Student resistance to learning and how to challenge it; Support V challenge - the key to a balanced relationship with your class; Binds of poverty - key pointers from research; SEMH and well-being; Disconnected kids - boys focus; "That kid"; Solutions focused - 2 quick behaviour wins

- √ Use practical learning behaviours alongside managing misbehaviours

Support v Challenge; The power of "yet" - growth mindset; Set your stall out (expectations, visual clues, reminders, meet and greet); Why are we here? (expectations and school values, pillars, be better, be teachable); Clear the path (double lesson plan, what is in it for me?, memory strategies, retrieval and recap, WAGOLL and WABOLL), Cookie jar principle

- √ Use classroom management strategies to support good classroom behaviour

The emotionally agile and empowered teacher; SAWUBONA teacher student relationships for learning; Rules; De-escalation strategies; Follow up/call for help

- √ Use targeted approaches to meet the needs of individuals in your classroom

Working with family and community to complete the collaborative triangle; Student intervention road map; Establish - Maintain - Restore model; The cookie jar in practice; Mistakes - how to turn them into teachable moments; Consequences - a different way of looking at rewards and sanctions; Responsibility and resilience - student superpowers; The blank page - every kid needs a second chance!

All sessions will take place virtually and all 4 must be attended to complete the course.
